WACO.

Mr. A. S. Pimentel was in the city yesterday. * * * Mr. Harry Hyman has gone to Cloudercroft, N. M., where he will spend a few weeks. * * * Those who attended the musical garden party at Adelman's lawn on Tuesday, the 6th, have witnessed some very novel features rarely introduced at lawn parties. The committee had spared no efforts to employ the best local talent. The gypsy camp formed a most entertainingly attractive feature. Miss Mary Fineman of Baltimore, as gypsy, delighted many an anxious lover's heart by her pleasing prophecies. Dr. French was chairman. Prof. Miller and his orchestra delighted the audience with their exquisite music. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Louis Katz are now at the National Hotel. * * * Mr. Daye Landman has gone East for several weeks. * * * Miss Blanche Schwartz of Gainesville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis Katz. * * * The Ladies' Aid Society of Congregation Rodef Shalom has contributed $10 to the children's playground fund. * * * Mrs. H. Domnan is again in Waco, being located at the State House.

E. Ney are now occupying their new bungalow on West Liberty avenue. * * * Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Herrinkind celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday with a reception at their home on Forrest street. During the afternoon and evening some two hundred guests called. The house was prettily decorated and ices were served. The host and hostess were in receipt of many handsome remembrances. * * * A wedding which created more than usual interest was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 6:30 at the Conservatory of Music, Miss Mollie Rudnick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudnick, and Mr. Jacob Rudnick of Houston being the contracting parties. The reception rooms and auditorium were handsomely decorated, white and yellow being the predominating colors, while palms and ferns were used as a back ground. Dr. Samuel Resinger officiated. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Henry Teiderman and an orchestra furnished music during the reception which followed the ceremony. Little Miss Bessie Lewis of Vinton was the first to enter as the flower girl in a dainty white frock. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Tillie Jacobs, of Houston, who was very handsome in a white marquisette over yellow satin, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was a vision of loveliness in her wedding gown of duchess satin, trimmed in red lace, and carried a shower bouquet. The gown was made empire, en train, and she wore a veil caught to her hair with orange blossoms which fell to the length of her gown. They were met at the altar by the groom with his best man, his brother, Mr. Sol Rudnick. After the ceremony some two hundred guests enjoyed a two-course luncheon and dancing until a few moments of train time. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. E. Rudnick, Misses Sophia, Sarah and Katy Rudnick, Miss Beatrice Jacobs, Mrs. J. Oppenheim, Mr. H. L. Rudnick, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Rudnick of San Antonio, Mrs. Wm. Zinn, Mr. I. Dorfman spent Sunday in Houston. * * * Mr. Mose Miller of Houston is making this city his home for the present. * * * Misses Toby Goldman and Kate Wolfson of Corsicana, Texas, are spending a week here. * * * Mrs. Krandall and son Ben left for a two months' visit to New York city. * * * Mr. Morris Finch of Beaumont spent Sunday here.

Rushing for Trains.

Mrs. Charles Whitney, who lives in Overbrook and whose husband comes to town every morning, called the maid yesterday with rather excited direction.

"Oh, Sarah!" she said, "I hadn't noticed how late it is. Go upstairs and tell Mr. Whitney to hurry or he'll miss his train."

"I have called him," Sarah answered proudly, "and he says, ma'am, that if I puts the grapefruit just outside the door and the chops on the top step and the rolls and coffee on the landing he can catch the 8:10 train."
